VIOLATION OF CONSTITUTIONAL DUTY.

We quote in our issue of to-day, from the official Record, that portion of Senator Howe's remarks in which he discusses and characterizes the action of the President in refusing to recognize the de facto Government of Louisiana, but instead thereof assisting the usurpation of power by the leaders of a lawless mob.

Our readers will perceive that the Senator states the case precisely as we have stated it from the beginning, that he cites the same plain provisions of the Constitution and expounding thereof by the Supreme Court, which we have all along held to be the correct and only basis of our position.

We would call our readers' attention to the fact that the Senator's remarks are not only a violation of the Constitution, but also a violation of the laws of the State, and that he is guilty of a crime.

THE AMERICAN CASE AGAINST THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

[From the New York Times.]

Mr. Blaine contributes two interesting essays to the discussion of the fisheries award, the second of which is a continuation of the first, and is a most valuable contribution to the discussion of the fisheries award.
